The Canadian Journal of Linguistics aims to publish critical analyses of books published in the last two years in order to promote these books, and their contribution to the field, to the linguistic community. To accomplish this goal, we expect that each review will go beyond a summary of the content of the book and will focus on one of the areas in the following paragraphs. (Alternate foci may be permitted upon discussion with the Book Review Editor.)

Guidelines for Book Reviews In general, follow the APA Publication Manual, 6th edition. Provide a brief but clear description and summary of the contents so that the reader has a good idea of the scope and organization of the book. This is especially important when reviewing anthologies that include multiple sections with multiple authors.
