Walking many miles to school in the dusty road, young Coretta knew, too well, the unfairness of life in the segregated south. A yearning for equality began to grow. Together with Martin Luther King, Jr., she gave birth to a vision and a journey—with dreams of freedom for all. This extraordinary union of poetic text by Ntozake Shange and monumental artwork by Kadir Nelson captures the movement for civil rights in the United States and honors its most elegant inspiration, Coretta Scott.

Presents information about the people, places, birds, insects, flowers, and endangered species associated with each of the fifty states and the nation's capital.

Introduces students to the fundamental concepts of the study of geography - location/place, region, movement and pattern, and the interaction of humans with their physical environment. This title allows you to use these geographic concepts as guides in your investigation of the basic physical patterns of landform, climate, and vegetation.
