KNOWING THE SCORE, BY KAT LATHAM (Book 1 of London Legends) Another re-read. I wasn't sure if I should review this one or not, but, after all, I did say I would review every book I read this year, and I wanted to re-read it after I recommended it to so many people (and before I read the latest one in the series).

Knowing The Score is a highly entertaining story that I really enjoyed! I love the setting of London, the accents, and the description of people and places. Kat really sets the novel up well with the prologue and the first couple of chapters. She drew me right in, wanting to know more, wanting to find out what Caitlyn and Spencer's story was.

Non English speaking players - Why do you play on the London server? Discussion. I am off work this week so playing during the day. The amount of French speaking players that have no idea what I am trying to convey, and vice versa, is confusing me. Why do you want to play with an immediate handicap?
