Lockwood Co The Creeping Shadow

The Creeping Shadow is Jonathan Stroud's fourth book in the Lockwood & Co. series. I have really grown attached to the psychic investigative trio of Lucy, Lockwood, George, and their sidekicks they have picked up throughout each book. While I don't read much YA these days, this is a series that will undoubtedly appeal to readers young and old.

PRAISE FOR THE CREEPING SHADOW "Stroud's scene setting and storytelling are second to none, but it's his ability to create credible, idiosyncratic characters and relationships that creates avid fans of the Lockwood & Co. series."— Booklist (starred review) From the Publisher

The Creeping Shadow (Lockwood & Co. Series #4) by Jonathan ...

The characters, especially Lucy and Lockwood, remain vibrant in The Creeping Shadow and continue to grow their ghost-catching talents. Lockwood is as cocksure as always and here reveals both more of a reckless side and a bigger soft spot for Lucy. In fact, the Lucy-Lockwood partnership has a real X-Files Mulder-Scully vibe to it.

The Creeping Shadow: Lockwood & Co., Book 4 Book Review

But Lockwood & Co. is an agent down – Lucy Carlyle is now a freelance operative. And the team have a lot on their plate: monstrous handprints on a window, sinister chopping sounds from a haunted kitchen . . . Not to mention the Creeping Shadow – a hulking menace that stalks a village churchyard, raising spectres from their graves.

The Creeping Shadow, by Jonathan Stroud

“At Lockwood & Co., George was famous for not being able to throw or catch with any accuracy. Back in the kitchen at Portland Row, even the casual passing out of fruit or bags of chips became an exercise fraught with danger.” — Jonathan Stroud, The Creeping Shadow 11 likes
