The Wolf The Duck And

Most creatures would find being swallowed by a wolf to be a bad thing, but the duck and mouse decide that it's not so bad. Somehow the two avoid being eaten and turn the wolf's belly into quite a comfortable home. When a hunter threatens their home, the duck and the mouse find they may have to stand up for what they have claimed as their own.

The Wolf The Duck & The Mouse: Jon Klassen, Jon Klassen ...

The wolf swallows a mouse, who, in turn, meets a duck in the wolf's stomach. The duck shows the mouse what a fun and better place is the inside of a wolf. When the wolf is threatened by a hunter, the mouse and duck defend their home. When the threat has passed, the wolf grants the duck and the mouse whatever favor they want.

The Wolf, the Duck, and the Mouse — Mac Barnett

When a hunter shoots at the wolf, the mouse and duck save the wolf's life in a very unconventional way. Klassen's trademark sepia-toned mixed-media artwork perfectly suits Barnett's story. There are a lot of details to explore both inside and outside of the wolf, and they add to the humor of the story.
