You're not special, but you can make the gift of life special. The gift is given to billions of people but if you choose not to take it for granted, your life will become special on your own terms. A gift does not have to be special to be appreciated. It just needs to be celebrated to make it worthwhile. You will end. Your legacy will die. The world will end. But, it does not matter. What matters is what you do with the little time (the gift) you have on earth. You have the mind and body ...

Sorry, You Are Not Special And You Need To Read This

This is where we need to hear a clear, and sometimes forceful, voice say, in love, You are not that special. You are not an exception to the basic laws and ordinances of human society, and as a Christian, you are not an exception to the ordinary means and patterns of the Christian life. You are not a cut above the rank-and-file in the world, and especially in the church. You are not exceptional in the ways you like to tell yourself in silence.

YOU ARE NOT SPECIAL | Kirkus Reviews

Just because you don't save lives every day, you don't have a huge self-confidence and you are not a doctor with five Masters and a PhD, it doesn't mean that you're not special. Being special could mean many things, like volunteering, helping your friends, listening to someone who feels alone, being a single mother or working all day long to pay the house mortgage.
